

ADVERBS

1. Read the text and underline adverbs in it. (V besedilu podčrtaj prislove – KAKO?)

Daniel Radcliff is an English born actor. He is Harry Potter in the Harry Potter series, which made him a Hollywood star.

In the films, Harry does amazing things easily. He can fly on a broom very fast, he can talk with snakes well and do magic tricks successfully.

In reality, of course, Daniel can't fly or do magic tricks. But he can do other things. He can speak Spanish fluently and he can learn to play the guitar quickly. He can also write beautiful poems. When Daniel acts in films he always works hard.

We form most adverbs by adding -ly to the adjective. Sometimes the spelling changes.

happy--happily careful--carefully

Some adjectives don't change.

fast high late early low hard

The adverb from good is well

We use adverbs with verbs to say how something happens.

He swims badly.

She can sing beautifully.
